Lærdansk Odense

Danish courses at the Internet and in class – a combined course

- for those who wish to get the best out of two different types of teaching.

Lærdansk Odense offers

Danish courses for foreigners with a long educational background who need to be able to combine the flexibility the Internet has regarding time and place with face-to-face classes.

A combined course which partly takes place in the classroom in Odense and in our virtual school called Netdansk.

A combined course at module 1 – 6.

The courses draw out the best from online education and face-to-face classes respectively.

At the Internet we benefit from the possibility for flexibility and individual planning and goals. In class we benefit from the contemporary presence.

At the Internet, among other things, we work with:

- Individual pronunciation training
- Oral monolog
- Written production and interaction
- Reading skills
- Particular individual needs

In class, among other things, we work with:

- Conversation/interaction
- Pronunciation
- Linguistic and cultural exchange of experience
- Linguistic understanding

The courses are concluded every module with an authorised test (module 1-4) or a test (module 5 and 6)

To attend the course you need:

A computer with Internet connection (Optimal min. 1mb/512kb)
Headset, possibly a webcam.

Times:

Tuesday and Thursday evening + online
